DETAILED ACTION

The amendment filed on 2/27/2006 has been entered. Claims 1-51 remain for examination.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-51 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: As previously recited, the prior art discloses various method for issuing coupons, token, bonus points and methods for redeeming the token, bonuses. However, the prior art fails to disclose the method of entering competition entry, the steps of correlating the product item with the token and subsequently assigning token ID and redeeming the token, etc., in the manners as recited in claims 23-41, 16-22, and 42-51.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-15 are considered persuasive. The examiner agrees that the "alias ID" as defined in the specification is not the same with the ID as recited in the reference of Kepecs. For this reason, the examiner withdraws the grounds of rejection on claims 1-15 set forth in the previous Office Action.
